

This I Know [Lyrics, 144 bpm, 4/4]

[Isaiah's Arrangement] by Isaiah Barker, Taylor Dirks, Nathan Allen

Intro:

Verse 1:

When faith is hard to keep for wounds are far too deep
And what I feel I need is gone
When hope is hard to hold for fears have taken tole
And what I feel I own is gone

Chorus 1:

This I know and fully understand
All control is only in Your hand
You are Lord; on this truth I'll stand
You are God, now and ever; all Your ways are good
Yes, You are God, now and ever; all Your ways are good

Verse 2:

As doubt may try to speak, You stop uncertainty
To show authority is Yours
As fear may tempt my soul, You point to what I know
To show that all control is Yours

Chorus 2:

This I know and fully understand
That all control is only in Your hand
For You are Lord; on this truth I'll stand
You are God, now and ever; all Your ways are good
Yes, You are God, now and ever; all Your ways are good

Verse 3:

Though I may feel this way, though I may feel this pain
I know Your love remains always
Though flesh and heart are frail, though flesh and heart will fail
I know Your love prevails always
I know Your love prevails always!
